

Melody for the Third Sunday after the Resurrection

Glory and honor are due
To whom on the third day arose
And appeared to His holy disciples
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

By His own will He became incarnate
In the womb of Mary Ἰπαρθενος<sup>1</sup>
To carry all our sins
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He accepted all sufferings
For our sake on the cross
He is the beloved Son of God
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

They set guards on His tomb
They also sealed the stone
But He arose while it was dark
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He broke the latches of Hades
And brought out Adam and his sons as heroes
He left Satan angry and in pain
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He tore assunder the handwriting
Of our sins and sorrows
He gave us His Body and Blood
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

David prophesied about His Resurrection
The Lord awoke as One who has dozed
As one who is sated with wine
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

Christ fulfilled that prophecy
Was buried for three days and then arose
We rejoice with Joseph and Nicodemus
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

On the road to Emmaus, He gave peace
To two disciples as He approached
As for Thomas, doubt entered his mind
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

Afterwards on the eighth day
All doubts were disposed

<sup>1</sup> Ti-parthonos = the virgin

As he saw and touched His wounds
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

With power the Lord invaded Hades
In His parade the righteous follow
He brought them into the paradise of joy
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

Micah prophesied that the mighty Lord
Shall come with His sword
To destroy the council of the wicked
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He trapped the devil with His wisdom
And to his first place, man was restored
He abolished the power of death
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He cast the enemy in darkness
He abolished his works with great blows
He received Adam and his offspring
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He took to paradise all the righteous souls
Great gifts to them He bestowed
This is the work of the Holy Lord
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He appeared to His pure disciples
To prove to them that He arose
With their own eyes they saw Him
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

On the Sea of Tiberius
To prove to them He is not a ghost
He ate with them honey and fish
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

Though He is not in need of food
He ate and drank that they may know
The truth of the Resurrection
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

All the heavenly hosts rejoice
At the Resurrection of the Lord
And the salvation of the souls
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

Early in the morning came
Peter and John to the tomb

To know and learn the facts
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

John outran Peter but waited
For him to see where Jesus did repose
They saw the linen cloths there
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

When they saw those signs
They said, “truly our Lord arose
We believe in His Resurrection”
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

He whom the heavenly praise
Has risen victorious on His toes
We are forever in His debt
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

We offer Him great thanks
For all the gifts He bestowed
His words are eternal truths
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

This is the will of the Merciful God
That He for whom heaven is His abode
Be buried in the tomb
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

We praise the Lord of lords
Joyful praises our voice echoes
To Him who sits at the Father’s right
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

His divinity united with His humanity
The eternal God, the Lord of hosts
All glory is due to Him
Christ was crucified, buried then arose

O You who rose from the dead
Heal us from all pains and groans
Save us from all temptations
Christ was crucified, buried then arose
