

Melody for the 4th Sunday After the Resurrection

I will open my mouth and declare About Him who came and suffered for us	With hymns and praise I will compose Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
The Father knew of what would come To plan redemption through His only Son	That is the reason why He chose Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
The prophets prophesied His coming They saw the Virgin Mary, His new heaven	And they wrote down upon their scrolls Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
He came and dwelt among us But He hid His divinity from Satan	We had in our midst the Lord of Hosts Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
By His free will He came to the cross To give light to those who are in darkness	And of our punishment, He did dispose Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
Because of His unlimited love And the gift of living daily with Him	Freedom and life to us He bestows Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
He destroyed the power of death He is the living immortal God	And He defeated all His foes Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
By His Death, He humiliated Satan And by His love, He saved us all	By His Resurrection, He defeated His foes Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
Jesus was raised up on a cross He bore our deserved chastisement	The tree of shame and of great woes Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
His lordship adorned the cross And made it the sign of power	The curse, to peace, He did transpose Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
And so they buried Him inside the tomb But He rose up after three days	The Lamb of God, the Lord of Sabaoth Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
His forgiveness was offered to all Who were tormented with him in Hades	To our father Adam and to all those Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
And He ascended to the heavens He sits at the right hand of the Father	With an eternal Body that glows Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
By His death He broke the thorn of death And He freed the saints from their prison	And He conquered all of His foes Christ was crucified and buried, then arose
He threw the dragon into the lake That was prepared for him and his demons	Of brimstone and fire, pain and woes Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

Satan once thought that he ruled
God redeemed them with His wisdom

all humanity, he exiled and deposed
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

How full of wisdom is the Father
His only Son redeemed us

The perfect plan He did compose
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

We were deceived by the serpent
In defiance, our hands reached for it

To eat the forbidden fruit is what we chose
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

That fruit was full of deadly poison
But God revived us with His mercy

Its potency, we did misdiagnose
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

Hallelujah to the merciful God
His tender mercy endures forever

We praise Him with gratitude because
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

He fulfilled all the prophecies
The beloved Son is the Redeemer

What the forefathers had composed
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

Of His Birth and sufferings
And His Resurrection and Ascension

Death and Burial, the prophecies told
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

Jesus ascended after forty days
Upon His apostles in the upper room

The Holy Spirit, the Father bestowed
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

All of the witnesses saw the Paraclete
Like tongues of fire over their heads

Descend over them as His light glowed
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

Behold how kind our Father is
He granted us true salvation

His love surpasses what the mind knows
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

He comforts every weary soul
Who call on Him with a true heart

And He surely consoles all of those
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

Christ came and will return again
To judge the living and the dead

Will sit on the throne as the trumpet blows
Christ was crucified and buried, then arose

Please, O Lord, grant all of us
To forever dwell with the Holy One

To please you daily before we repose
Who was crucified and buried, then arose
