

deteriorated and they moved them to one of the cells. Later Ibrahim El-Gohary built a church for them around the end of the eighteenth century, where they placed the bodies of the saints. The church is still in existence today in the Monastery of St. Macarius. The cell in which they were kept is known today in Coptic as the cell of Ehmil Epseet or the Cell of the 49.

The Church commemorates the 49 Elder Priests of Sheheat, Martinos, the envoy representative of the emperor, and Ziuz his son on the twenty-sixth day of the Blessed Month of Tubah.

May their blessings be with us and Glory be to God forever. Amen. ✙
