

> “Teach me Your way, O Lord. I will walk in Your truth” (Ps 86:11)

The Way, Truth, & Life conventions are geared for the high school youth. The overall goal of each convention theme is to help the youth with the Way to walk in the Truth that will lead them in dealing with the challenges of Life. “Teach me Your way, O Lord. I will walk in Your truth” (Ps 86:11).

We took our first step with ‘Identity’, learned more about our ‘Attitude’, then focused more on ‘Relationships’, ‘Dealing with Adversities’, and ‘Stewardship’.

The last convention was called ‘Truth or False’; “...Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve...But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD” (Joshua 24:15). The thought provoking questions to think about were as follows: 1) Which master are you serving? 2) Do you recognize the false masters? 3) Can a person have a balanced life serving two masters?

To help answer these questions were the guest speakers: H.G. Bishop Youssef and Fr. Pishoy Salama, who both blessed us with eye opening lectures, and the Diocese priests leading the workshops.

The WTL-High School Girls Convention was held on December 26-29, 2006 at Embassy Suites Hotel in Destin, Florida. This year we had the highest number of attendees: over 210. Each day was filled with activities and fellowship with one another; by the end of the convention we were sad to leave. Yet as we wait for next year’s convention, we took home our memories filled with friendships, spiritual growth, and more importantly the knowledge of ‘Truth or False’.

Written by
Sandy Naguib,
Chattanooga, TN

