

Exposition of the Ninth Hour of Hosanna Sunday

Original:

O come all of you today, O blessed, pious Christian, church loving people; Let us glorify the One God, who, in this week received the sufferings on our behalf for the salvation of our father Adam and our mother Eve, the mother of all the living. On this day, the Lord entered Jerusalem, together with His disciples. And when He entered, all the city was moved and shaken, saying, Who is this? And the great multitudes said, this is the great prophet from Nazareth. Then the blind and the lame came to Him, and He healed them all, and all the children cried out saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" But when the chief priests saw it that murmured saying, what shall we do? And Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never read in the scripture, 'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have perfected praise?'" When the infidel and treacherous Jews heard this, they all took counsel to kill Him...Christ our Saviour...

O come all of you today, O blessed, Church loving people; Let us glorify the One God, who, in this week received the sufferings on our behalf for our salvation. On this day, the Lord entered Jerusalem, together with His disciples. And when He entered Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? And the multitudes said, this is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. Then the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they murmured and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?" And Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never read in the scripture, 'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have perfected praise?'" Then He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and He lodged there. When the infidel and treacherous Jews heard this, they all took counsel to kill Him...Christ our Saviour...
