

Christ is Risen

On Easter morning
Something magnificent had happened
No longer death and sadness
No longer deep darkness
No longer fear and despair
The tomb had been open
Jesus had risen with His own power
His glory had finally been revealed
Who can imagine!
Who can believe!
Everything changed overnight
The gates of heaven were no longer closed
Through the cross we were reunited with God
Jesus declared
No more death
No more fear
Soon some will join with Him
Those
Who are willing to believe!
Who will live their lives for Him!
Finally
Our soul is free
Our hearts are full of joy
Praise the Lord!
For
All He has done
All of His blessings
And
All He will do
Happy Easter
